CC/EXT/012 – Market Volatility

Dear team,

Announcement of Election News Tomorrow (11.12.2018) and Resignation of Mr. Urjit Patel from Reserve Bank of India, exposure will be reduced by 5 times in both NSE / MCX”

There will be heavy volatile in the market. In anticipation of the increased volatility, intraday leverage for the MIS product type will be lower than usual for Equity, F&O, and Currency segments. Intraday margins for the Commodity segment will remain the same. Please plan your trades accordingly.

Margin requirements will reset to normal as soon as the volatility subsides.

Please ensure you maintain adequate margins throughout the day to ensure your positions do not get squared off.
